EXPLANATORY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SEC 102 (1) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013

Item No 3.

Approval for Development/ Mortgage and Disposal of land of the Company pursuant to the provisions of Section 180(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013.

Following discontinued the PTA plant in the year 2018, the company has been pursuing opportunities in agri-business including warehousing, trade, and setting up manufacturing facilities. While some progress was made in this direction, substantial progress could not be made for want of the required project finance and working capital facilities, which can only be availed of by providing the required security by way of the company's land. However, the company's land continues to be mortgaged to the remaining financial creditors of the company namely PICUP, SBI, and Canara Bank. Therefore, in the given scenario agri-business or any other business cannot be pursued vigorously.

On the other hand, the outstanding liabilities to the aforesaid financial creditors have been mounting and it is no longer possible to sustain these creditors while keeping the company's land safe as SBI and Canara Bank have obtained decrees from Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT) against the Company long ago in the year 2005. PICUP has also issued the notice to take over the physical possession of the Company's assets. Now, Company has settled with PICUP and has even made a part payment against the settlement. The other banks are fiercely contesting the execution of the DRT Decrees but continuing to defend them now appears not just very difficult but almost impossible.

The strategic investor, who helped clear several financial creditors of the company earlier, has not been able to clear, for several years, the aforesaid remaining financial creditors. Therefore, timely saving the land from the financial creditors and getting it unencumbered have become inescapable. And, to do so, it has also, in turn, become inescapable to timely generate the funds to pay off the remaining financial creditors. Also, the Company has not been able to provide any returns to its shareholders for a considerable period. In these circumstances, the Board believes that monetization of the Company's under-utilized assets is necessary to unlock their value, discharge the Company's outstanding liabilities, revive its operations, thereby enabling the Company to enhance long-term value for its shareholders who have continued to support the Company over the years.

In view of the above, it has been decided by the board, after due deliberations and consultations with the domain experts including the various reputed International Property Consultants, that the land be monetized by selling or developing or in any combination thereof. To this end, the management has already commenced making efforts and taken some concrete initial steps.

However, recognizing that the monetization of the land can be a very time-consuming exercise and sustaining the financial creditors until then may not be feasible, the Board is also considering raising a bridge finance from lenders/ investors/ financial institutions/ Companies, to clear the remaining financial creditors by offering a part of the Company's land as a security by way of an equitable mortgage on being unencumbered by the remaining financial creditors.

Accordingly, pursuant to Section 180 (1)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013 and regulation 37A of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, members of the Company are further requested to note that their consent to the Board is being sought by way of a Special Resolution to sell, develop, individually or jointly with other developer, or by any combination thereof, and/or equitably mortgage a part of the Company's land in favour of the provider of bridge finance including a Company, located at Chhata, Chhata-Barsana Road, Mathura-281401, Uttar Pradesh, to a buyer and/or with a developer and/ or to the mortgagee as may be identified and mutually agreed by the Board of Directors and buyer and/or developer and/or provider of bridge finance.

Additional information required to be disclosed pursuant to regulation 37A(1)(b) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015:

S. No.	Particulars	Details
1	Object of Sale of the property	The Company owns land situated at Chhata, Chhata-Barsana Road, Mathura-281401, Uttar Pradesh, which is utilized very marginally. The said land is being monetized to a pay :- a) the remaining financial creditors of the Company through One-time Settlements, b) make the Company debt-free, and c) provide capital to pursue its objectives.
2	Commercial Rationale	Providing capital to pursue its objects takes precedence over keeping the Company resources locked in the unproductive assets. So, in line with the Company's strategic focus on operational efficiency and financial prudence, the Board, based on the recommendation of the Audit Committee, has decided to monetize the said land. Additionally, the Company may explore venturing into new business i.e. Real Estate Development, Defence and Green Energy. To revive and strengthen the operations of the Company and create sustainable long-term value for its shareholders.

S. No.	Particulars	Details
3	Use of Proceeds	The proceeds arising from the sale of the said land shall be primarily utilised towards repayment of existing borrowings / lenders / creditors. This would result in an improvement in the Company's financial health by ultimately becoming debt-free. The balance funds shall be utilised towards capital requirements to pursue the Company's objectives.

None of the Directors or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or their respective relatives, are in any way concerned or interested, financially or otherwise in the said resolution.

The consent of the members is, therefore, being sought for passing the aforesaid resolution of the notice as Special Resolution.

Item no. 4. Alteration of the main object clause of the Memorandum of Association of the company

As the members are aware, after discontinuing the PTA plant, the Company is presently engaged in agri-business, trading and warehousing activities. However, these businesses offer limited growth potential due to regulatory restrictions on agricultural commodities. Accordingly, the Board has been exploring new business opportunities that offer sustainable long-term growth and better utilisation of the Company's resources.

The Board has identified the defence manufacturing and renewable energy sectors as attractive areas for diversification. The Indian defence sector is witnessing significant growth, driven by the Government's "Atmanirbhar Bharat" initiative, increasing capital expenditure, higher defence exports, and greater participation of private enterprises. Similarly, the renewable energy sector continues to expand rapidly, supported by favourable Government policies and India's target of achieving 500 GW of non-fossil fuel-based installed capacity by 2030. These sectors present substantial opportunities for long-term value creation while supporting national priorities.

The Company also proposes to enter into the mining and exploration business as part of its strategy to diversify its business activities and explore new avenues for growth and long-term value creation.

In view of the above, the Board of Directors has approved, subject to the approval of the shareholders, the alteration of the main object Clause III(A) of the Memorandum of Association (MOA) of the company by inserting new clauses 6, 7 and 8 after the existing clauses 5 of the Main Objects of MOA of the company, to enable the Company to undertake activities in the defence manufacturing and renewable energy sectors, in addition to its existing businesses.

Pursuant to Section 13 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules made thereunder, alteration of the Main Object Clauses of the MOA of the company requires the approval of the members by way of a Special Resolution.

None of the Directors, Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or their respective relatives is, in any way, concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the proposed resolution, except to the extent of their shareholding, if any.

The Board recommends the Special Resolution for approval by the members.

ANNEXURE – C

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR-2025-26

1. Introduction

The financial year 2025–26 marks an important transition in the strategic direction of SVC Industries Limited (“SVC” or “the Company”). Agriculture, warehousing, and commodity trading have historically constituted the Company’s principal business activities and have provided the foundation on which the Company has built its operating capabilities.

The Company now proposes to build upon this foundation and progressively diversify into Defence, Green Energy, Real Estate and Exploration & Mining, in addition to continuing its Agriculture business. The proposed expansion will focus on opportunities in India and selected markets in Africa. Following extensive evaluation and consultation with external advisers, the Company has decided to explore monetization of its existing land bank and deployment of the resulting capital towards next-generation and growth-oriented sectors. The Company’s strategic vision is built around four interconnected themes:

Food Security | National Security | Energy Security | Mineral Security

The objective is to transition from a predominantly agriculture and commodity-oriented business towards a diversified industrial and infrastructure platform with an India–Africa focus. The Company’s promoters have a longstanding experience in implementing projects in Africa, providing the Company with market familiarity and relationships as it evaluates opportunities across selected African markets, including mining and processing.

The Company believes that the timing of this transition is significant. India is witnessing strong investment in defence manufacturing, energy infrastructure, renewable power, critical minerals and industrial capacity. At the same time, several African economies are seeking investment in energy, minerals, infrastructure, defence capability and local industrialization. These developments create a broad opportunity landscape in which the Company can progressively deploy capital, develop strategic partnerships, and participate in sectors with long-term structural demand.

The Company will continue its Agriculture operations while evaluating opportunities in:

- a) Agro-processing and value addition;
- b) Defence and defence-related manufacturing/infrastructure;
- c) Green Energy generation and energy infrastructure;
- d) Mining, minerals and critical-mineral value chains.

The Company’s strategy is therefore not a departure from its past, but an evolution from its existing foundation towards a broader set of growth opportunities.

2. STRATEGIC TRANSFORMATION – FROM AGRICULTURE TO A DIVERSIFIED INDUSTRIAL PLATFORM

The Company’s evolution can broadly be viewed in three stages.

Stage I – Foundation

Agriculture, warehousing, and commodity trading established the Company’s operating capabilities.

Stage II – Transition

The Company is evaluating monetization of under-utilized assets and deployment of capital into sectors offering greater long-term growth potential.

Stage III – Growth

SVC intends to build an India–Africa focused platform across Defence, Energy and Mining while retaining Agriculture as an important operating base.

The strategic transition can be represented as:

This approach is intended to provide the Company with a substantially larger addressable market and reduce its dependence on the economics of a single business line. Importantly, the Company intends to follow a phased and partnership-led approach, allowing it to enter new sectors without attempting to build every capability organically from the outset.

3. INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

3.1 Agriculture – The Foundation Business

Agriculture will continue to remain part of the Company's business portfolio. India's agricultural economy continues to benefit from strong domestic food demand, increasing organized retail, food processing, export opportunities and the gradual formalization of agricultural supply chains. The opportunity is increasingly shifting from simple commodity trading towards:

Procurement → Storage → Processing → Value Addition → Distribution

The Company will therefore continue to evaluate opportunities in agro-processing and value-added agriculture. However, the Company's future strategy is not intended to remain dependent on agricultural commodity cycles alone. Agricultural businesses can be affected by weather conditions, commodity prices, Government policies, trade restrictions, inventory cycles and working-capital requirements.

Accordingly, Agriculture will provide the foundation, while Defence, Energy and Mining are intended to provide the Company's principal avenues for future diversification and growth.

3.2 Defence – India's Emerging Industrial Growth Engine

India's defence sector is undergoing a significant structural transformation. The country is moving towards greater self-reliance in defence production, increased private-sector participation, indigenous technology development and a growing role in international defence exports.

Defence production and private-sector participation have continued to expand, demonstrating the increasing role of private industry in India's defence ecosystem. The Government has set an ambitious objective of increasing domestic defence production to approximately ₹3 lakh crore by 2029.

Defence Exports

The international opportunity is also expanding, supported by the continued growth of India's defence exports. India has also set a target of achieving approximately ₹50,000 crore of defence exports by 2029. This growth demonstrates the emergence of India as not only a major defence consumer but also an increasingly important defence manufacturing and export base.

Opportunity for SVC

The defence opportunity extends well beyond the manufacture of complete weapons platforms. The emerging ecosystem includes defence components, sub-assemblies, fabrication, engineering, electronics, drones and counter-drone systems, surveillance systems, communication equipment, defence logistics, testing facilities, maintenance and repair, industrial infrastructure, Tier-2 and Tier-3 suppliers and export-oriented manufacturing. SVC intends to evaluate opportunities within this wider ecosystem.

3.3 Defence – Opportunity in Africa

The defence opportunity is not confined to India. African countries are increasing investment in security, surveillance, border management, defence capability and domestic industrial capacity. African military expenditure continued to increase in 2025, reflecting rising security and defence requirements across the continent. The broader global defence market also continues to expand, with worldwide military expenditure reaching approximately US$2.89 trillion in 2025. For SVC, Africa can potentially provide both a market opportunity and a partnership opportunity.

Potential areas include defence equipment and components, surveillance and security systems, logistics, engineering and maintenance, industrial partnerships, defence-related infrastructure, localization and assembly and India-Africa manufacturing and supply chains. India's growing defence manufacturing capabilities, combined with Africa's expanding requirements, create the possibility of an India-Africa defence value chain.

3.4 Energy – A Long-Term Structural Opportunity

Energy represents another major area of opportunity for SVC. India's electricity demand is expected to continue growing through 2030, reflecting increasing industrialization, electrification, cooling demand, transport electrification and economic growth. India is simultaneously undergoing a major expansion of renewable energy.

India's installed renewable-energy capacity has continued to expand, with solar representing a major component of this growth. Renewable capacity has expanded strongly over the past decade, creating opportunities not only in generation but also across the wider energy ecosystem.

Opportunity for SVC

The Company intends to evaluate opportunities in solar power generation, captive renewable power, commercial and industrial renewable energy, energy storage, renewable-energy parks, power infrastructure, industrial captive power, and partnerships with established energy developers.

3.5 Energy – The African Opportunity

Africa represents one of the world's largest long-term energy infrastructure opportunities.

A substantial proportion of Africa's population continues to lack access to electricity, highlighting the scale of the infrastructure deficit. At the same time, clean-energy investment is increasing. Private-sector clean-energy investment in Africa has increased materially in recent years.

The opportunity therefore extends beyond conventional power generation and includes: solar generation; mini-grids; commercial and industrial solar; battery storage; transmission and distribution; energy-access projects; hybrid renewable systems; and power supply for mining and industrial projects. For SVC, the combination of Africa's energy deficit, industrialization, natural resources and renewable-energy potential creates an attractive long-term opportunity for selective participation.

3.6 Mining and Critical Minerals

Mining and minerals represent the fourth strategic pillar of the Company's proposed diversification. India's mineral demand is being driven by infrastructure development, manufacturing, urbanisation, power generation, renewable energy, defence and the broader industrial economy.

India's production of key minerals, including iron ore, manganese, bauxite and refined copper, continued to grow during FY2025–26. The importance of minerals is expected to increase further as the global economy moves towards electrification and advanced manufacturing.

Critical Minerals

Minerals such as copper, Lithium, Cobalt, Graphite and Rare Earth Elements are increasingly important to renewable energy, batteries, electric vehicles, electricity grids, electronics, telecommunications, advanced manufacturing and defence systems.

Africa possesses significant mineral resources and is increasingly seeking to move beyond the export of raw materials towards beneficiation, processing and local value addition. This creates an opportunity for Indian companies with appropriate technical and commercial partners to participate in India–Africa mineral supply chains.

Opportunity for SVC

SVC proposes to evaluate opportunities in mineral sourcing, mining partnerships, mineral logistics, mineral trading, beneficiation, processing, critical-mineral supply chains and India–Africa strategic mineral partnerships.

The Company does not propose to assume that it must independently develop large-scale mining operations. Instead, the preferred approach will be to identify opportunities where SVC can participate through joint ventures, strategic partnerships, offtake arrangements, project-specific investments and asset-backed models.

3.7 Why Africa Matters to SVC

Africa is strategically important to the Company's proposed expansion because it combines several of the themes underlying SVC's future strategy:

- a) Resources
Significant reserves of minerals, metals and critical minerals.
- b) Energy
Large electricity-access deficit and substantial renewable-energy potential.
- c) Infrastructure
Major requirements for transport, logistics, power, and industrial infrastructure.

d) Defence

Increasing security expenditure and demand for surveillance and defence capabilities.

e) Industrialization

Growing emphasis on domestic manufacturing and value addition.

Sub-Saharan Africa is expected to continue recording economic growth, providing a broader backdrop for increasing industrial and infrastructure investment. SVC's proposed Africa strategy will therefore focus on selected countries and commercially viable opportunities rather than pursuing a broad geographical expansion without defined projects.

3.8 Key Industry Indicators

The structural opportunity being evaluated by SVC is supported by the following indicators:

Sector	Key Indicator	Growth / Opportunity
Indian Defence	Defence production	1.78 lakh crore in FY2025–26; 15.6% YoY growth
Indian Defence Exports	Defence exports	38,424 crore in FY2025–26; 62.7% YoY growth
Private Defence	Private-sector production	Approximately 42,000 crore in FY2025–26
India Energy	Electricity demand	Expected to grow approximately 6.4% p.a. to 2030
India Renewable Energy	Installed renewable capacity	Approximately 288.6 GW as of June 2026
India Mining	Iron ore production	289 MT in FY2024–25; 4.3% growth
India Mining	Manganese production	11.8% growth in FY2024–25
Africa Defence	Military expenditure	8.5% growth in 2025
Africa Energy	Private clean-energy investment	Nearly US$40bn in 2024, vs. ~US$17bn in 2019
Africa Energy Access	Population without electricity	Approximately 600 million people
Sub-Saharan Africa	Economic growth	Approximately 4.1% projected growth in 2026

These indicators demonstrate that the Company's proposed diversification is aligned with sectors experiencing significant structural investment rather than short-term cyclical trends.

4. INDIA–AFRICA BUSINESS MODEL

The Company's India–Africa strategy is based on the complementary strengths of the two markets. India provides manufacturing capability, engineering expertise, defence technology, renewable-energy capabilities, project execution, technology partnerships and a large industrial ecosystem.

Africa provides natural resources, critical minerals, energy opportunities, infrastructure requirements, expanding markets and opportunities for local manufacturing and value addition. This creates the potential for a business model based on:

Indian Technology + Indian Manufacturing + African Resources + African Markets

The Company will evaluate opportunities where this combination can create a sustainable commercial advantage.

5. CONVERGENCE OF STRATEGIC SECTORS

One of the Company's key strategic observations is that Defence, Energy and Mining are not isolated sectors. They increasingly form part of one interconnected industrial ecosystem.

This creates opportunities for SVC to participate at selected points across an interconnected value chain rather than relying exclusively on a single sector. The Company therefore sees its future not simply as a collection of unrelated businesses, but as a platform aligned with four fundamental economic requirements:

Food Security | National Security | Energy Security | Mineral Security

6. BUSINESS OPERATIONS STRATEGY

As SVC expands into new sectors and geographies, the Company intends to strengthen its internal operating architecture alongside capital deployment. The objective is to build a lean, scalable and digitally enabled operating model capable of supporting a diversified portfolio without recreating unnecessary complex legacy structures.

The Company proposes to progressively digitize core internal processes, including documentation and knowledge management, workflows and approvals, project and task tracking, management reporting, and financial and operational MIS. This is intended to improve information availability, accountability, management visibility and institutional continuity as the business becomes more complex.

Modern modular and cloud-based tools, automation and emerging AI technologies will be evaluated where they can improve efficiency and scale. This may include selective use of AI-assisted and agentic workflows across research, documentation, analysis, reporting, monitoring and other repeatable internal activities.

Technology adoption will remain phased and use-case led. The Company will prioritize solutions that are commercially practical, secure, interoperable and proportionate to actual business requirements, with appropriate management oversight and controls.

7. CAPITAL ALLOCATION AND IMPLEMENTATION APPROACH

The Company intends to follow a disciplined approach to capital deployment. The proposed monetization of the Company's land bank is expected to provide an important source of capital for the next phase of growth. The Company will seek to deploy such capital progressively rather than committing substantial resources to multiple projects simultaneously.

Potential structures include strategic partnerships, joint ventures, project SPVs, technology partnerships, contract manufacturing, asset-backed projects, project finance and strategic or institutional investment. The Company will prioritize opportunities based on market size and growth, long-term demand visibility, capital efficiency, availability of credible partners, regulatory feasibility, potential return on capital and scalability.

The principle will be: Identify the opportunity → Validate the business model → Build the partnership → Deploy capital → Scale

This approach is intended to ensure that growth is supported by commercial fundamentals rather than expansion for its own sake.

8. RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company recognizes that the proposed sectors are regulated and in certain cases, capital intensive. The principal risks include regulatory requirements, project execution, technology requirements, capital availability, commodity cycles, geopolitical developments, and country-specific considerations in Africa.

The Company intends to address these through appropriate regulatory and legal due diligence, phased capital deployment, experienced technical and operating partners, project-level evaluation, appropriate financing structures and country-specific assessment for African investments. The Company's diversification strategy is intended to reduce concentration in a single business line. The Company will not commit significant capital to a new business without appropriate technical, financial, legal, and commercial due diligence.

9. OUTLOOK FOR FY2026–27 AND BEYOND

The Company enters FY2026–27 with a broader strategic vision and a proposed transition towards a more diversified business platform. Agriculture will continue to remain an important operating foundation. Alongside this, the Company intends to progressively evaluate commercially viable opportunities in Defence, Green Energy and Mining in India and selected African markets.

The near-term focus will be on identifying suitable opportunities, developing credible partnerships, completing the required technical, financial, legal and commercial evaluation, and aligning capital deployment with the Company's land monetization and liquidity position.

In parallel, the Company intends to progressively strengthen its business operations through digital systems, improved management of information and selective adoption of automation and AI-assisted workflows. The pace and scale of diversification will depend on the maturity of individual opportunities, regulatory feasibility, availability of appropriate partners, expected return on capital and the Company's overall financial position. The Company intends to follow a phased approach, with capital committed progressively as opportunities move from evaluation to implementation.

10. CONCLUSION

The financial year 2025–26 represents a turning point in the evolution of SVC Industries Limited. As the Company progresses with the proposed monetization of its land bank, the focus will be on disciplined deployment of capital into commercially viable opportunities, supported by strategic partnerships, phased execution, digitally enabled business operations and appropriate financial, operational and risk controls.

The Board believes that this approach can position SVC for broader and more diversified growth while maintaining capital discipline and creating sustainable long-term value for its shareholders.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of SVC Industries Limited

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Financial Statements of SVC Industries Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2026 the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Cash Flow and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended, and notes to the Financial Statements, including material accounting policies and other explanatory information ("the Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013, as amended ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2026, its loss, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Financial Statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs), as specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the 'Code of Ethics' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements for the financial year ended 31st March, 2026. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report along with our description of how our audit addressed the matters.

Key audit matters	Purpose
Evaluation of uncertain financial liabilities As described in Note No. 13.1 to 13.6, Note No. 27 and Note No. 29, the Company has outstanding financial liabilities having book value of Rs. 4,910.07 Lakhs as on 31.03.2026 towards non-convertible debentures and loan from state financial institutions. Recovery petition filed by the lenders are pending before the Debt Recovery Tribunal (DRT). The amount claimed in these petitions are much higher than the book value of the liabilities. The Management has approached these lenders for one-time settlement of these financial liabilities and is hopeful to close the matter by mutual agreement in due course, a reliable estimate cannot be made of the amount likely to be paid in satisfaction of these financial liabilities. Meanwhile, the Company, has requested Pradeshia Industrial & Investment Corporation of U.P. Limited (PICUP) to grant an extension of the timeline for payment of the balance amount under the One Time Settlement. Litigation matters The provisions and contingent liabilities relate to ongoing litigations and claims with various authorities and third parties. These relate to direct tax, indirect tax, claims, general legal proceedings and other eventualities arising in the regular course of business. As at the year ended 31st March, 2026, the amounts involved are significant. The computation of a provision or contingent liability requires significant judgement by the Company because of the inherent complexity in estimating future costs. The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the expenditure. The provisions and contingent liabilities are subject to changes in the outcomes of litigations and claims and the positions taken by the company. It involves significant judgement and estimation to determine the likelihood and timing of the cash outflows and interpretations of the legal aspects, tax legislations and judgements previously made by authorities.	Our audit procedure on evaluation of uncertain financial liabilities included • Obtained understanding of key uncertain financial liabilities and their status before various judicial authorities; • Read and analysed key correspondences between lenders and the Company regarding the uncertain financial liabilities; • Discussed with appropriate senior management and valued management's underlying key assumptions in estimating the uncertain financial liabilities; and • Assessed management's estimate of the possible outcome of the negotiation by way of one-time settlement with lenders. • Obtained and reviewed the key correspondence exchanged with PICUP, including the letters sent by the company to PICUP. Our audit procedures included and was not limited to the following: • Assessing management's position through discussions with the in-house legal/tax team and external legal opinions obtained by the Company (where considered necessary) on both, the probability of success in the aforesaid cases, and the magnitude of any potential loss. • Discussion with the management on the development in these litigations during the year ended 31st March, 2026. • Roll out of enquiry letters to the Company's legal counsel (internal/external) and study the responses received from them. Also verified that accounting/disclosure made by the Company are in accordance with the assessment of legal counsel. • Review of the disclosures made by the Company in the financial statements in this regard.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Management and Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report and the Annual Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The reports are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard at this moment.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Company's Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

These responsibilities include the design, implementation and - maintenance of adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to the financial statements. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered accountants of India. Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Financial Statements

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.
